THE WAR NOT ENDED

Sioux Indians Liable to Break Out at Any Time.

NO HASTY STEPS TO BE TAKEN.

The Military to Remain Inactive for a Few Days in the Hope That All the Hostiles Will Become Satisfied That There is No Danger and Come Into Camp.

PINE RIDGE AGENCY, S. Dak., Jan. 14.—While the iron hand of the army has apparently got the Sioux rebellion by the throat, there is no telling at what instant the savage, grown desperate by hunger and fright, will make one more struggle to avenge his wrongs. The hostiles are still in camp in the ravine to the northwest. Their messages to Gen. Miles are of a pacific nature, but in their peace councils the young men, who are the actual warriors, hold aloof. This element, numbering between 300 and 600, it would seem, needs to be crushed if the war is to come to a speedy end. They are turbulent, insolent and belligerent.

It now seems to be the plan of the military to remain inactive for two or three days in the hope that the youngsters may become satisfied that they are not to be punished for their crimes and that they will listen to the councils of such chiefs as Young-Man-Afraid-of-His-Horses.

Gen. Miles held no council with the chiefs of the hostile camp yesterday. It is doubtful if he will consent to any more pow-wow. He has promised the savages plenty to eat and the immediate observance of existing treaties, but as a conqueror he has warned them that they must submit to whatever terms he may dictate. It is believed that Gen. Miles contemplates a gradual disarming of the hostiles, but it is the universal opinion of those who have been among the hostiles that they will not even submit to such a cautious move on the part of the military.

Yesterday, when the Seventeenth infantry was escorting Gen. Brooke's supply train over the hills to the agency several hundred young bucks rushed into the neighboring ravines and pockets with their guns and prepared to give the soldiers battle, believing that they had appeared to attack the tepees. The troops, however, tramped along without noticing them and the savages returned to their village without firing a shot. Incidents like these show the critical nature of the situation.

Private Henry B. Stone, Troop F, Seventh cavalry, died last night from the wounds he received at Wounded Knee. Private Stone's death makes the thirty-fourth among the cavalrymen and scouts within a fortnight.

General Miles' Message.

"Gen. Brooke's command is now camped five miles distant on White Clay creek, and the entire body of Indians are between the two commands. Gen. Brooke has commanded his forces with commendable skill and excellent judgment. The greatest difficulty is now to restore confidence.

"The Indians have great fear that the army will be taken away and then all treated like those who were on Wounded Knee. They have a large number of wounded women and children, which creates a most depressing feeling among the families and a desperate disposition among them. The military measures and movements have been successful. The control and government now becomes the problem, yet no serious embarrassment is apprehended at present."

Not Dancing, But Drinking.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The commissioner of Indian affairs, on the strength of a telegram from Governor Toole, of Idaho, who requested that protection be afforded the settlers near Alma, where the Indians were reported to be dancing, yesterday received a telegram from the agent saying there is no trouble among the Indians, and that they were off the reservation on their annual hunt, and on returning bought some whisky from white men, of which they imbibed too freely. They became hilarious, which gave rise to the report that there was an outbreak. They have gotten over their frolic and everything is quiet.

Hostiles Along Snake Creek.

HELENA, Mont., Jan. 14.—Reports from Chinook, in Chouteau county, say four families came in yesterday from Snake creek and reported that a band of about 250 Sioux Indians were raiding the country, killing cattle, stealing horses and committing other depredations. Chinook is ill prepared for defense against an Indian attack. At a meeting of citizens it was decided to make a requisition on the governor for 500 stands of arms with ammunition.

Four Hundred Hostiles Break Away.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 14.—The Post Dispatch has the following special from Pine Ridge Agency: Between 400 and 500 Indians broke away from the hostile camp yesterday morning, and have started for the Bad Lands via Wounded Knee. They are crazy and fanatic, and are committing depredations wherever they go. Gen. Carr, with four companies of cavalry, and Col. Wheaton, with four companies of infantry, are after them.

Agonizing Death of an Employee in a Paper Mill at Goshen, Ind.

GOSHEN, Ind., Jan. 14.—Sunday night John Whiteman fell into a vat of boiling lye in the Indiana Paper company's vats at Mishawaka. He managed to keep his head above the boiling lye and screamed for help. When rescued the flesh fell from his bones and death was instantaneous. He was 42 years of age and leaves a family.

HUNTING A WOLF.

GREENCASTLE, Ind., Jan. 14.—The farmers of north Putnam are considerably excited over the numerous depredations committed by a wolf on their sheep folds. A half dozen or more hunts have been organized in the hope of exterminating the animal, and a reward amounting to over $50 has been contributed by the neighbors for his capture. Nearly all of them have suffered by his raids, and some have lost as high as twenty sheep.

It has been seen and shot at repeatedly, and on one occasion was pursued a distance of nine miles without being brought to bay. Children are afraid to go to school in the neighborhood or venture out after nightfall. His wolfship is said to be about the size of a shepherd dog and of a gray color. A gentleman from this city formerly owned a pet of that description, which escaped from him, and is thought to be the one now at large in the neighborhood of Bainbridge.

Four Men Killed by a Train.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 14.—A special from Tremont, O., states that Charles Reems, Milton Gilmore, Grant Gray and Will Babcock were instantly killed at dusk yesterday by being struck by a train on the Lake Shore road a few miles east of Fremont. All of the men lived at Green Springs, O., and were returning home from a marketing juncture. They were in a sled which was demolished and the horses killed. Two of the party were killed outright, one died on the train and the other at Clyde, O., whence the men were taken. Strange to say, not one of the four was badly mutilated. It is supposed they did not hear the train approaching until they were directly on the track when they attempted to turn around, but too late.

Findlay Failures.

FINDLAY, O., Jan. 14.—Yesterday was an unfortunate one for the business houses of this city and county. The sheriff closed the grocery store of A. J. Bish, on South Main street, and the house of Baker & Rice, general grocers, on East Sandusky street, on attachment, while the boot and shoe store of Weekly Brothers, at Rawson, eight miles west of Findlay, made an assignment to B. M. Allison. All the establishments have liabilities largely in excess of their assets and the failures are complete. Dull trade and poor collections are assigned as the cause in each instance.

Will Marry Her First Husband.

LAWRENCEBURG, Ind., Jan. 14.—When the gold fever of 1849 struck Indiana Andrew Paul, a farmer of Dearborn county, went to California, and after a few more years was lost trace of. His wife remained faithful for twenty years, when she heard he was still living and procured a divorce. Since then she has fallen heir to a fortune and has had two other husbands, both of whom are dead. Recently, when very ill, she telegraphed for Paul and he returned, gray-haired and bent with years. A reconciliation occurred and they will remarry.

Death of One of Napoleon's Heroes.

CANTON, O., Jan. 14.—Joseph Aikens, of Mount Union, died Monday night, aged 99 years. He was the oldest resident of Stark county, was born in Bedford, France, and served under Napoleon for eight years. He took part in a number of battles, in the recounting of which he took great delight. His regiment was ordered to Waterloo in 1814 to join in battle with the English, but the regiment was unable to get there in time to take part in that decisive conflict. He came to America in 1830.

Ordered to Leave the Country.

NEVADA, Mo., Jan. 14.—Last night about fifty masked men, armed with shotguns, went to the house of John Beasley, who lives near this city, and ordered him to leave the country within forty-eight hours. From there they went to Phillip Beasley's and called for a stepson of John Beasley, who was supposed to be there, but he was not at home. They left word for him to go out also. They accused Beasley and his stepson of petty thieving and said that they proposed to put a stop to it.

Four Men Killed.

VICTORIA, B. C., Jan. 14.—Yesterday afternoon an accident happened at Ocean dock at the entrance of the harbor, resulting in the death of four men. A gang of men were employed in discharging salmon from the steamer Danube, and had piled up about 5,000 cases on a large shed. Suddenly the floor gave way, and the men and 1,000 cases of salmon went into the water below. Three men were killed outright and one fatally injured. Several others were seriously injured.

Crushed at a Quarry.

PLATTSBURGH, N. Y., Jan. 14.—John and William Flory, sons of Foreman Flory, and two Italians were instantly killed and James O'Connell, Jack McShane and one Italian were fatally injured at Split Rock quarry on Lake Champlain, near Westport, yesterday afternoon. They were engaged in hoisting stone into a car with a large derrick when it suddenly gave way crushing the men.

Will Subsidize the Midland.

BRAZIL, Ind., Jan. 14.—The special election in Brazil township to vote on the question of subsidizing the Indiana Midland railroad, resulted in favor of the subsidy by 250 majority on a two-thirds vote. The subsidy will aggregate $23,000. The company owns right of way to Sand creek, in Parke county, twenty miles distant. A force of men are at work between Carbon and Brazil.

Indorse the Farmers' Financial Scheme.

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 14.—A resolution passed the senate Monday, unanimously instructing the United States senators from North Carolina to secure, if possible, the objects of financial reform contemplated in the Ocala plan.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Behring Sea Controversy Discussed.

THE CASE AS IT NOW STANDS.

It is Believed That the Supreme Court Will Refuse to Become a Board of Arbitration on This Subject—Proceedings of Congress—Other Items.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The effort of the British government through counsel for Canadian officials Monday, to bring the Behring sea controversy before the supreme court of the United States, was the chief topic of conversation here yesterday in diplomatic and official circles. The matter was talked about informally in cabinet meeting yesterday, and, although members of the cabinet are naturally reticent about it, still it is apparent that the administration is but little disturbed over the alleged flank movement on the part of the British or Canadian lawyers.

As the case now stands, it is simply this: The petitioners Monday asked the supreme court to take hold of a case involving disputed international questions and treaty rights. Attorney General Miller promptly objected to the introduction of the motion on the grounds that the supreme court had no jurisdiction in the case at issue, which originated in the district court of Alaska; that the case sought to be introduced was a political case, without legal aspects, and, therefore, had no place in the supreme court. He also claimed that it was unconstitutional for the supreme court to administer upon matters belonging to an executive department.

The court at once denied the right of the petitioners to make their motion, but set a day two weeks hence when the question of admitting the motion will be argued.

Attorney General Miller yesterday declined to talk about the matter, merely dismissing all interviewers with the remark that it was not a good plan to practice law in the newspapers, and assuring them that he would have enough to say about the matter in a fortnight, when he should make his argument before the supreme court.

Friends of the administration say they have no doubt the court will, after hearing arguments, reassert its conclusion of Monday, and decline to become a board of arbitration for the settlement of the vexatious Behring sea matter—a political question already in negotiation between the diplomatic representatives of the United States and Great Britain.

Proceedings of Congress.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The senate met at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, and after the passage of some public bills, proceeded with the consideration of the financial bill. Mr. Sherman spoke in opposition to the free coinage amendment. He occupied four hours in the delivery of his argument, and at its conclusion was loudly applauded. Messrs. Allison and Evarts followed in speeches also against the free coinage amendment; and Mr. McConnell in its support. The senate at 6 p.m. adjourned, with an agreement that general debate on the financial bill shall close this evening after several senators who desire to speak have been heard.

The house occupied the entire day, after morning business, in discussing the army appropriation bill, and adjourned without action on it.

Teachers and Pupils.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The census office has made a preliminary report in regard to the number of teachers and the number of pupils in the public schools of 102 cities and towns having a population of 10,000 or over. It shows in eight cities and towns that teachers have on an average from 35 to 40 pupils; in thirteen places, from 40 to 45 pupils; in seventeen places, from 45 to 50 pupils; in thirty-six places, from 50 to 55 pupils; in ten places, from 55 to 60 pupils; in nine places, from 60 to 65 pupils; in three places, from 65 to 70 pupils; in one place, from 70 to 75 pupils; in one place, from 80 to 85 pupils; in one place, from 85 to 90 pupils; in one place, from 90 to 95 pupils; in one place, from 95 to 100 pupils; and one place, from 110 to 115 pupils.

Senator Mitchell Will Be Re-Elected.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Senator Mitchell received dispatches from Salem, Ore., notifying him that at the Republican legislative caucus there last night, with every member present, he was nominated by acclaim as his own successor in the United States senate. This insures his re-election by the two houses of the Oregon legislature next Tuesday.

Election Contests.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The committee on elections yesterday decided to report to the house the contested cases of Kernaghan against Hooker and Hill against Catchings. The report is in favor of Hooker and Catchings, both sitting members.

Cotton Exports.

PENSIONS FIRST.

They Must Be Paid Before Any More Bonds Can Be Bought.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Secretary Windom is authority for the statement that the growing treasury surplus cannot now be used in the purchase of four per cent. bonds, for the reason that it will be needed to meet pension payments due next month aggregating $25,000,000. The available cash surplus is now $18,000,000, but by continued excess of receipts over expenditures will probably reach the required amount by the time indicated. Secretary Windom is of the opinion that the business of the country would be improved by making these pension payments monthly instead of quarterly, as at present, and he has made a recommendation to that effect to the proper congressional committees. If this is done, he says, it will do away with the present necessity of keeping a large sum of money in the treasury vaults for three months when it might just as well be in the hands of the people entitled to it.

FIVE SCORE AND FIVE.

Aged Rachel Stillwagon Passes Away in Her Armchair.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Sitting in the old armchair which for months has been her only resting place, Mrs. Rachel Stillwagon, a centenarian, who was 105 years old in September last, died about midnight on Sunday at the residence of her son, Geo. Stillwagon, in Flushing, L. I. She was probably the oldest living

RACHEL STILLWAGON—person in the state whose age could be verified by reliable records.

Mrs. Stillwagon was born near Tarrytown, N. Y., on Sept. 18, 1785. She was well acquainted with the late Commodore Vanderbilt and many notable personages of both sexes who were prominent in the early years of the century. Mrs. Stillwagon's husband died in 1838. Up to two years ago she possessed all her faculties, made her own dresses, baked, cooked and did other household duties. Last spring her health began to fail and she became so weak that she could not be moved without endangering her life. Her sight and hearing also began to fail.

Mrs. Stillwagon was the daughter of Stephen and Hannah Acker, of Tarrytown, N. Y., at the time of her birth, and her life record is much like that of other very old women—that is, she was naturally cheerful, lived fairly well, took a great deal of exercise and had no accident or serious sickness. When 12 years old she went to New York city to live, and saw the metropolis grow from Canal street to Harlem. In 1841 she married Daniel Stillwagon, a carpenter, and seven children were born to them. One son, George Stillwagon, 67 years old; two daughters, Mrs. Catharine Willetts, of Denver, 77 years old, and Cordelia, 70 years old; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild survive her.

RAILROAD COLLISION.

Two Engines and a Mail Car Utterly Demolished.

SOUTH NORWALK, Conn., Jan. 14.—By a collision between the regular commuters' train from Danbury and a heavy switch engine drawing two loaded flat cars, and having twenty freight handlers on her tender, on the Danbury and Norwalk branch of the Housatonic railroad yesterday, two engines and a United States mail car were demolished.

The engineers and firemen of both engines leaped from their cabs and were slightly injured. Bagagemaster John Sniffen was severely cut about the head. The passengers in the coaches were thrown from their seats, but escaped with a shaking up. None of the laborers were hurt. The accident was directly due to Engineer William Glinning, of the switch engine, who was running on the regular train's time.

Caused by a Hot Box.

LOWELL, Mass., Jan. 14.—A hot box on the fly-wheel in the steaming room of the Hamilton Manufacturing company caused a fire at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. The operatives came out of the mill by the fire escape and the stairs, not waiting for the fire to be extinguished after a hard fight. A quantity of clothes machinery was damaged, as was also the large engine, mostly by water. Loss about $5,000.

Big Strike of Telegraphers.

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 14.—The telegraph operators employed by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul road have agreed to strike, the company having declined to rescind the order of a reduction of salaries. Chief Thurston has issued a circular asking contributions from all telegraphers in aid of the strikers.

An Editor Now.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Jan. 14.—I. M. Weston, for several years chairman of the Democratic state central committee, yesterday assumed management and control of The Daily Democrat, which he purchased a month ago. Col. A. M. Aldrich, of Milwaukee, will be chief editorial writer.

Kansas Legislature.

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 14.—The lower house reconvened at 3 o'clock and proceeded immediately to effect a permanent organization. The candidates agreed upon in the Farmers' Alliance caucus were elected without opposition. The principal officers are: P. T. Elder, speaker; Benjamin Rich, chief clerk; S. W. Chase, sergeant-at-arms, and Jacob Campbell, doorkeeper

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

WEIN ESDAY, JANUARY 14, 1891.

THE assessed value of property in Clark County is $8,100,000 in round numbers, an increase of nearly $500,000 over last year's figures. This is a handsome showing. It can probably be accounted for by the fact that Winchester platted the surrounding cornfields and sold them for town lots.

THE Republicans have not only got away with that surplus left in the treasury by the Democrats, but they are actually thinking of issuing bonds to satisfy the extravagant demands of the Pension Office. Such Senators as Sherman, Allison and Morrill are gravely considering the question. There is not much economy being practiced by Harrison's administration.

THE Constitutional convention is wasting a good deal of time and of the people's money talking about taxing churches. Surely there is not a delegate in the convention fool enough to imagine that a Constitution with such a cause would be ratified by the people. As Judge Beckner, of Winchester, one of the best men in the convention, says, the delegates themselves would not vote for such a Constitution. Judge Beckner likely made this remark before he heard the harangue from the delegate from Greenup.

THE ignomous Greenup County sent to the Constitutional convention made a fine spectacle of himself yesterday. He made a speech in favor of taxing churches, in which he claimed they contained "more candidates for Canada and hell, according to his ideas, than do the slums of the city." The man who entertains such opinions as that should be forever barred from a seat in any Legislative body. He is the same individual who made a spectacle of himself in the Republican Congressional convention here last fall.

Worthy of Emulation

Maysville has a city ordinance against persons crowding about the polls at elections. It was rigidly enforced for the first time at the city election a few days ago, and worked like a charm. No one but the person voting was allowed nearer than within thirty feet of the polls. The idea is a good one and worthy of emulation by other towns.—Winchester Sun.

Meeting of Farmers at Mayslick

There will be a meeting of the farmers held at Mayslick on Saturday evening next, the 17th instant, at 2 o'clock, to consider the location of tobacco warehouses in Maysville. Every farmer in that precinct is urged to be present. This is an important matter to our farmers and we trust all will attend. The location of the warehouses at Maysville is an assured fact if our people will take hold. Let all attend the meeting.

The Art of Advertising.

Advertising seems to be an art yet to be discovered by some people. That is, the practical part of it. A constant stream of water from one or more fire engines will soon extinguish or get under control a very large fire, while a few buckets of water, dashed on here and there, have little or no effect. The modern fire department is practical, and has outgrown the old bucket system; and so with modern advertising—plenty of it, used in a practical, common sense and judicious manner, pays.

If you want to catch a certain kind of fish you use a certain kind of bait; not all fish bite at all kinds of bait. Not all people respond to every advertisement. The newspaper is a medium indispensable to the majority of advertisers, because of its wide and repeating circulation. As a promoter of trade and profit newspaper advertising is no longer an open question; that is, when done in a practical and intelligent manner, and pays because of its effectiveness and cheapness.—Beatrice (Neb.) Democrat.

A Noteworthy Exception.

From the Kimball (S. D.) Graphic: "While the columns of the Graphic are open to any and all unobjectionable advertisements, yet it is quite impossible for us to speak knowingly of the merits of various articles of merchandise advertised. Particularly is this true of patent medicines. But there are exceptions occasionally and a noteworthy exception is the celebrated Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This now universally known medicine has been advertised in the Graphic for four or five years but not until recently had we any personal knowledge of its wonderful efficacy which has come about through the prevailing influenza and the stubborn cough that has so often attended it. In the writer's family this medicine has on several occasions this winter cured a cough that baffled any and all other medicines; and the number of families in Kimball and vicinity, in which this remedy has been used with like effects, attests to its value as a specific for coughs and colds of every nature." For sale by Power & Reynolds, druggists.

THE BLUE GRASS CIRCUIT.

Dates Fixed for the Fairs and Races to Be Held This Year.

The secretaries of the various fair associations composing the Blue Grass Circuit met at Lexington Monday, the following associations being represented by the gentlemen mentioned: Shelbyville, Dan Brown; Harrodsburg, C. B. Sullivan; Sharpsburg, L. S. Rogers; Eminence, W. L. Crabb; Danville, J. A. Lee; Maysville, J. W. Fitzgerald; Lexington, R. S. Strader; Cynthiana, H. K. McAdams; Winchester, W. H. Garner. Nicholasville, Richmond and Springfield had representatives present, and asked admission to the Circuit and an allowance of dates.

After much discussion the following dates were agreed upon: Shelbyville, July 15; Eminence, July 22; Harrodsburg, July 28; Danville, August 4; Sharpsburg, August 11; Maysville, August 18; Lexington, August 25; Paris, September 1; Winchester, September 8; Cynthiana, September 15.

A committee consisting of W. L. Crabb, of Eminence; J. W. Fitzgerald, Maysville, H. K. McAdams, Cynthiana; Col. L. S. Rogers, Sharpsburg; Col. R. S. Strader, Lexington, was appointed to select dates for the new members of the Circuit. They made the following report: Springfield, July 7; Richmond, September 27; Nicholasville, September 29. These dates did not suit and there was much kicking. The delegates declared the dates could not be accepted. The probability is, therefore, that the new members will stay out this year, and fix dates to suit themselves.

The Fall Mile Driving Club, of Cincinnati, was a member of the Circuit last year, but was not satisfied with the date assigned. The Club had no representative present at Monday's meeting and has likely concluded to go it alone this year.

It was decided that entries for the stake races should close Monday, May 4.

Lectures.

Mr. Leon H. Vincent's first lecture at the High School, January 23d, is on "Nathaniel Hawthorne," the second, January 24th, on "Dr. Johnson and His Friends." The ready sale of tickets to these lectures testifies to the fact that our people appreciate Mr. Vincent, and that they are wide awake to the worthy effort that is being made to foster and advance a taste for good literature.

Electric Cars.

The electric cars for the street railway arrived this morning. It will be several days, most likely the 1st of February, before they are put on the line. The outfit has to be thoroughly tested and the motor men drilled by an expert from the Westinghouse Company before the road can be operated by electricity.

A WINCHESTER firm claim their loss at the late fire amounted to $12,000. They carried $9,000 insurance. The company's adjuster took the firm's books, did a little figuring and claims there was only about $2,800 worth of goods destroyed, and he is now ready to settle at $3,000. The firm refuses, and insists on the entire amount, $9,000. The fire, by the way, started in the store referred to.

A LECTURE and elocutionary recital will be given to-night at the M. E. Church on Third street, by Mrs. Rose H. Winstead, of Spokane Falls, and Miss Mayme Roberts, of Indianapolis. Mrs. Winstead is a well known lecturer and elocutionist and will be ably assisted by Miss Roberts. Everybody invited. Admission free.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

MORANSBURG.
W. L. Moran has completed his new blacksmith shop.

E. D. Pickett attended the tobacco sale at Cincinnati.

M. Vach Best, of Waupello, Ill., is visiting the family of Robert Loyd this week.

The temperance folks will give a select masquerade ball at their hall Thursday evening, the 15th inst. The invitations outside of the order will be limited.

Madame Rumor has it that a prominent young man from the Buckeye State will soon lead one of Rose Hill's fairest daughters to the Hymeneal altar. We offer congratulations and regards in advance.

Mrs. Rose Winstead and Miss Mayme Roberts gave an elocutionary recital at the Temperance hall last Saturday night, to an appreciative audience. Mrs. Winstead delivered a temperance lecture at the Old Stone Church Sunday night.

Elder Edward Metz, of the Kentucky University, at Lexington, has been called to preach at the Christian Church at this place. He will take charge about the first Lord's day in February. The officers should be more than gratified for securing the services of such a talented and worthy young man.

MAYSICK.
For all kinds of woolen goods, call on J. A. Jackson.

Dried apples, peaches and evaporated fruits, at J. A. Jackson's.

Mrs. Mary D. Howe is much better. She was able to be on our streets last week.

Bargains unheard of, for cash, at J. A. Jackson's. He wants his friends to give him a call. Don't be backward.

J. A. Jackson wants his friends to know that it takes money to pay his debts and buy new goods, and hopes a hint to the wise will be sufficient.

During the past ten days we have had some cold weather. A good many have filled their ice houses, while others have been waiting for better ice.

James H. Tindler, of Winchester, who has been seriously ill for months past, is now visiting his brother, Elder F. M. Tindler, at this place. He is not quite feeble, but seems to be improving slowly. The doctors advised a change of location.

Elder A. A. Price, pastor of the M. E. Church in this place, lost his youngest child on the 7th instant, little Minnie. She was the idol of the family, and was ten months old. Funeral on the 8th, conducted by Rev. H. A. Southgate, of Washington, after which the remains were placed in our cemetery. They were followed to the grave by a large concourse of sympathizing friends. The father is now confined to his room and quite poorly.

PLUMVILLE.

Miss Rosa Key is on the sick list. Stock at Mr. Clay Stone's sale brought good prices.

Sarah Robinson (colored) is very sick, not expected to live.

The pound party at Mr. White's was quite enjoyable. Several of our young folks attended.

Mr. John Holiday's sheep are losing their wool. Several are almost naked. Instead of "making him clothes in wintry days," it looks as if he will be compelled to "clothe" them.

The farmers of Mt. Gilead and vicinity have formed an "Alliance Club." They meet once a week. Three additions last Saturday night. They talk of building a steam flouring mill. Several thousand dollars are promised for that purpose.

Mr. M. B. Tolle has completed his new house and will occupy it the present winter. Mr. Tolle being a bachelor, but by no means a woman hater, some are anxious to know the reason of his move. Just be patient. Mr. Tolle never is in a hurry. He don't want to "catch a tarter."

Three young gentlemen started to a masquerade, which was also a "pound party," last Friday night, each one with his pound. It being very dark, they lost their way, each one eat this pound and returned home wondering why the boys will risk so much for the company of girls. Young men, it has been since the world began, and will so continue until the end.

Professor FOSTER reiterates that the coldest weather of the winter, in the West, will be experienced between the 20th of February and the 1st of March. He says a storm wave will cross the Ohio and Mississippi valleys to-day and to-morrow.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Juries for the January Term—Fines Assessed—Other Business.

The January term of the Mason Circuit Court convened yesterday, Judge Cole presiding, and Messrs. James H. Sallee and C. D. Newell looking after the interests of the Commonwealth.

The Sheriff and his Deputies were sworn in regard to summoning grand and petit jurors.

An account of John P. Morton & Co. amounting to $16.65 for record books was allowed and ordered certified to State Auditor for payment.

Squire Miller's account of $8 for services in felony cases was allowed. Same order.

A. Bona, James Devine and F. H. Traxel were each fined $5 and costs for violating the cigarette law.

Charles Meissner, of Mayslick, was adjudged guilty of Sabbath breaking—selling liquor on Sunday—and fined $10 and costs.

In the case against Wm. Price, for wilfully and maliciously shooting and wounding Joe H. Forsyth, an order was issued against Forsyth requiring his attendance on the 6th day of the term as a witness. He now lives at Dayton, Tenn.

The case of the Commonwealth against Augustus and Samuel Sullivan for the murder of Thomas A. Broshears was set for trial on the 7th day of the present term.

On motion of Judge Wall, Mr. W. A. Bryon, of Augusta, was sworn as an attorney of the Mason County Bar.

Elisha Green, colored, of Mayslick, was adjudged guilty of carrying concealed a deadly weapon and fined $25 and sentenced to jail ten days.

Con Guillioyle, of Mayslick, was convicted of selling liquor to a minor in two cases, and fined $50 and costs in each case.

The fines assessed the first day amounted to $350. In all the cases, the law and facts were submitted to the court.

County Clerk Pearce filed his report of taxes received on deeds, &c., from October 14, '90, to January 13, '91. There were 79 deeds, 75 mortgages and powers of attorney, 31 marriages, 13 seals, 6 licenses to sell spirituous, vinous and malt liquors, 2 licenses to sell pistols or bowie knives; $52 taxes on license for studs, jacks and bulls, and $3 taxes on dogs. The total receipts amounted to $1,225. His report was examined and approved by the court.

Circuit Clerk Parry's report of taxes on suits, &c., for same period was filed, examined and approved. It showed $11.50 on equity and $12.50 on common law suits, and $16 on jury fees.

The following compose the grand jury:

H. H. Collins, (foreman), Charles Kenan, J. W. Power, Lewis Jenkins, Eliza Peyton, H. C. Barkley, Wesley Prather, John Steers, Alfred Hicks, Lewis Long, Robert Downing, Joshua Watson, R. S. Weaver, W. N. Howe, Dennis Fitzgerald, W. P. Ray.

Rosencrantz Gunsaul was fined $10 and costs for Sabbath breaking.

The following compose the petit jury:

J. S. Asbury, R. A. Carr, W. T. Suit, Charles Parry, Wm. Wormald, Lawrence Ford, Wm. McClelland, A. Shanklin, Thos. James, M. T. Goddard, James H. Hall, John Worick, Bert L. Pearce, Jno. T. Parker, J. C. Humphreys, James Thomas, W. R. Newell, Jos. Bateman, S. M. Worthington, C. W. Forman, A. R. Pierce.

The case of Tobe Singleton, one of the three negroes charged with murdering Simon Travis, is on trial. The jury is as follows: Lawrence Ford, W. T. Suit, J. S. Asbury, Thomas McDonald, J. B. Furlong, Samuel Smith, B. W. Goodman, James Chamberlain, John Lane, T. W. Wallace, A. J. Mason, W. S. Prather.

NELSON County's taxable property is valued at over $6,000,000, and she has but little debt. A new court house is needed to take the place of the dingy, dilapidated old court house, but the Farmers' Alliance, which exerts considerable influence in the county, is opposed to the expenditure.

THE Frank Owens Hardware Company state that in order to close out as many goods as possible by January 1st they have reduced the price in all their fine stock of goods, such as brass fire sets, coal vases, fine carvers and forks, child's knives, forks and spoons, fine table cutlery, &c., &c.

CAPTAIN HEFLIN has received a letter from Dr. Gibier, of the Pasteur Institute, New York, saying that James Taylor, colored, was doing well. The treatment will cost the doctor about $100, and he thinks a contribution by the citizens of Maysville to pay him would be a fair action.

Twenty-two of the dogs bitten by the one which bit Taylor, have been killed by Captain Heflin. If there are others known to have been bitten, he asks the citizens to report the fact to him.

For thirty days Bierbower & Co. will sell heating stoves at cost. They are agents for the celebrated John Van ranges, and have a fine stock of "Limestone," "Eclipse," "Imperial," "Home" and other cook stoves. Call on them.

DR. A. B. JONES.

A Former Citizen of Maysville Dies at Newport—Sketch of His Life

The sad news was received here yesterday of the death of Dr. A. B. Jones, of Newport. He passed away Monday night at 10:30, from pneumonia.

He was born in this city August 2, 1838, and his early life was spent here. After leaving Maysville he studied dentistry in Cincinnati, and finally located in Newport in 1872, where he steadily grew in the affections of the people. The Covington Commonwealth's correspondent says:

"He was one of Newport's most beloved citizens, and was loved and respected by all classes. No man was ever blessed with a more amiable social disposition. The best qualities of human character permeated every action of his life while in this city. One of the most impressive traits of his excellent character was his almost divine devotion to his mother, who for years was the only companion of his household. His mother died last year, and since her death the doctor has taken but little interest in the affairs of this world. Indeed, soon after the loss of his mother, the decline of his health became evident to all his friends, and some six weeks ago he was prevailed upon to take a trip of a few weeks to the Sunny South in hopes of regaining his health. He came back a few days since and was immediately taken to his brother's home in Dayton, where he gradually sank until Monday night, when he passed away, surrounded by his brother's family and some of his most intimate friends. He was an honored member in the highest circles of Oldfellowship, and was a prominent factor in the chess circles of the country."

Deceased was a son of Peter B. Jones, who is remembered by many of the older citizens of Maysville. His mother died last June, and was buried in the cemetery here, and his remains will be brought up and placed at rest by the side of hers.

Railway News.

The Kentucky Central pay car was here last night, settling with employees for last month's work. They will get their pay hereafter from the L. & N.

The Owensboro Inquirer rejoices in the fact that Daviess County will soon be free from its railroad debt. It says that there are now but about $12,000 in bonds outstanding, and the county has ample funds to pay those.

The earnings of the C. & O. for the first week of January show an increase of $862.08 over those for the corresponding week of last year. The figures are:

1890..... 1524,099.2

Increase..... $ 862.8

The Lexington Press says: "Among the facts that may be considered fixed in regard to the railroad situation, that is so far as regards the consolidation of the Louisville & Nashville and Kentucky Central, are that General S. F. B. Morse, General Passenger Agent of the Kentucky Central, will be replaced by Mr. S. S. Parker, present division Passenger Agent of the Louisville & Nashville in Cincinnati, and General Morse will be General Passenger Agent of the New- port News & Mississippi Valley, with headquarters located at Lexington or Ashland. Mr. H. E. Huntington will be General Manager of the New- port News & Mississippi Valley."

FIRE.
Two Big Fires in New York at the Same Time—Other Losses.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—About 1 o'clock this morning fire was discovered in the large malt house of E. M. Van Tassel, foot of West Eleventh street, and four alarms were sent out in quick succession. The massive structure was filled with grain, malt and hay. The building was seven stories high, and was entirely destroyed.

Shortly before 1:30 a. m. another fire was discovered at the White Star dock at Houston and West streets, and three alarms were sent out from that locality. Fire boats assisted the engines at both fires.

Heavy Losses at Dallas, Texas.

DALLAS, Tex., Jan. 14.—Fire yesterday caused the following losses: J. R. Hooper & Company, liquors, $35,000, insurance, $17,500; T. N. Robinson, stationer, $50,000, insurance, $12,000; Fred Boedecker, confectioner, $9,000, insurance $5,000; Murphy & Belanz, building, $30,000, insurance $19,400; T. E. Henderson, building, $12,000, insurance $8,000. Total $106,000.

Children Badly Burned.

LIMESTONE, N. Y., Jan. 14.—The dwelling of John Wright was yesterday destroyed by fire and four of Mr. Wright's children were badly burned, one of whom is not expected to recover.

Print Works Damaged.

LOWELL, Mass., Jan. 14.—The Hamilton print works, on Jackson street, this city, was badly damaged by fire yesterday. The fire was confined to one wing.

Partially Insured.

SALT LAKE, Jan. 14.—Fire in the Hooper-Eldridge building on North Main street yesterday resulted in a loss of $80,000; partially insured.

REVOLUTION IN CHILI

Said to Have Broken Out on the 7th Inst. Nothing Official.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Messrs. Charles R. Flint & Company received a cable Tuesday stating that the revolution broke out at Valparaiso on the 7th of this month, the revolutionary forces being assisted by several of the vessels of the navy.

Their cable also stated that the Chilean government was taking active and energetic measures to suppress the revolt. As no advices have been received since the 7th of further action on the part of the revolutionists, it is presumed that the government has been successful.

Have Not Heard of it.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The Chilean minister has received no information from his government in regard to the published report of the revolt of the Chilean navy against the government. He attaches no importance to the alleged outbreak.

Assistant Secretary of State Wharton says that if there is a revolution in Chile, as private dispatches allege, the department of state has not been advised of it.

THE NEBRASKA MUDDLE.

Both Sides Stubborn and All Legislation Blocked.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 14.—The supreme court allowed ex-Governor Thayer to file a quo warranto yesterday, citing Governor Boyd to show cause why he should not vacate his office. "However," the court said, "we recognize James E. Boyd as the legal governor of Nebraska, and all the state departments do likewise. We would advise the ex-governor to quietly and peacefully submit to the governor, as it will do him no good to further resist."

In spite of this Thayer refuses to vacate his office. The board of public lands and buildings have again designated the quarters occupied by Thayer as the governor's office, and will remove Thayer from the room this afternoon, peacefully if possible, forcibly if necessary.

Notwithstanding the decision of the supreme court the Independents in the house stubbornly refuse to recognize Boyd as governor and declare they will never do so until the question of citizenship is determined. It looks as if all legislation will be blocked until the contest is decided.

THREE MEN HORRIBLY SCALDED.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 14.—A terrible and probable fatal explosion occurred yesterday in the big building of the Edison Electric Light company on Sansom street, above Ninth. About 9:30 o'clock, three men who were at work in the boiler room, were horribly scalded by the bursting of a steam pipe connected with one of the huge boilers. The unfortunate men were completely enveloped in clouds of scalding steam which thoroughly saturated their clothing, and the boiling water literally cooked their flesh.

An ambulance was promptly sent to the scene, and the still unconscious forms of the victims were taken to the hospital. The physicians did everything in their power for the victims, but their condition is extremely critical, and it is feared that their terrible injuries will prove fatal. The following are the names of the victims: John Strouth, 29 years old; Robert Gibson, 45 years of age; Edward Sullivan, 49 years.

WANTED TO TRADE WIVES.

An Alleged Agreement Between Two Residents of Indiana.

RICHMOND, Ind., Jan. 14.—A sensational report comes from Williamsburg relative to Mr. Frank Helms, of that place, and Daniel Smith, of Carlos City, Randolph county, agreeing to swap wives. The report is that the Helms were disconsolate because they had no children and the Smiths because they were being favored with too many.

By the swap Smith's wife, four children and small farm were to go to Helms and Helms' wife and small town to Smith. But Justice Rush, of Carlos City, on whom they depended to satisfy the law while they were satisfying themselves, could not "find it in the books" where the authority for divorce and remarriage, under such circumstances, has ever been given. Hence he got from under the responsibility they sought to impose on him.

Supplies for One Fragile Creature.

A cynical doctor, withal a man of wonderful resources and a quick mind, lives on one of the avenues on the South Side. He was in his study a few nights ago when a young man came in and began questioning him about the propriety of marrying. The young man foolishly raved over his sweetheart, and called her angelic and so on. He was afraid that she was too fragile for this world. The old doctor grunted.

"Fragile, eh?" he asked. "How fragile? Ever test her fragility? Let me give you some figures about her and womankind in general, showing how fragile they are. Let us suppose that this piece of perfection is in moderately good health. She will live to be, say 60 years old. Women don't like to die any more than men do—not as much—for women never grow old, you know. Listen to me. She will eat one pound of beef, mutton or some other flesh every day. That's 365 pounds of meat in a year.

"In sixty years it's 21,900 pounds. How's that for fragile? She will eat as much bread and as much vegetables per diem, and there you have in sixty years 43,800 pounds of bread and meat. If she is not too angelic she will drink daily no less than two quarts of coffee or tea. And by the time she is ready to have a monument she will have consumed 175 hogsheads of liquids. Fragile?"

"Now, young man, these figures do not include the forty or fifty lambs she will worry down with mint sauce. It does not take into consideration the 2,000 spring chickens, the 500 pounds of butter, the 50,000 eggs and the four hogsheads of sugar she will consume in sixty years. It doesn't take into consideration her ice cream, her oysters, her clams and such. All this means about forty-five tons. Fragile? Think of your affinity in connection with these figures, and then rave over her being fragile. Young man, you are a fool. Boof!"—Chicago Tribune.

Oysters as a Dessert.

I used to know a bon vivant who never ate oysters except after dinner. He boarded for many years at one of the famous hotels in this city, and during the oyster season every day, as soon as he had finished his dinner in the saloon, he used to walk directly to the oyster counter, on the ground floor, and eat a dozen blue points on the half shell, which the watchful attendant always had selected for him. This experienced epicure scorned to begin a meal with oysters. "What?" he would say, "put cold bivalves on an empty stomach?" Such a practice must ruin digestion.

"Begin your meal with warm soup, which gently stimulates the stomach and gives it a tone. When you are through with a hearty meal, your stomach craves something cooling. It ought to be gratified. Not with a viand hard to digest, but one which dissolves easily with the heat of the stomach, imposing no labor upon the digestive faculties. Oysters are just the thing—cooling, of delicious flavor, refreshing; they settle the appetite and make the whole system feel at ease. They are the scientific climax to a banquet, and the man that does not know it is not a finished epicure."

The old gentleman proved that oysters after dinner were healthful anyway, for he lived to be more than fourscore and kept up his practice to the last.—New York Star.

An Anecdote of Buchanan.

Governor Thomas B. Jones, of Alabama, tells this incident of his boyhood, part of which period was spent in school in Virginia:

"On my way home for a vacation I passed through the capital for the express purpose of getting a glimpse at President Buchanan. Standing in the National hotel, I remarked to a friend that I hated to leave the city without seeing the president. An elderly gentleman, who was reading a paper near where we stood, looked up with a smile and remarked:

"So you want to see the president, do you? Meet me here at 10 o'clock to-morrow and we will pay him a visit."

"It is needless to say I kept the engagement. The gentleman was on hand, and we got into a carriage, but I didn't know I was riding with the president of the United States till after we had reached the White House and heard him addressed by his title. Then my modesty got the better of me and I wanted to retire, but the president kept me quite awhile, and I went away thoroughly happy."—Washington Post.

A Host Who Provides Razors.

Chief Justice Paxon, of the Pennsylvania supreme court, called at Borneman's barber shop, in this city, to get shaved. After the work had been performed he inquired of the barber as to his charges for shaving razors, and the latter, naturally thinking that there would be but one or two, stated that his price was a quarter apiece. The judge had nothing to say against this, and next day called and laid down a lot of thirty-seven of the finest chin scrapers ever seen.

The judge explained that he was accustomed to have large numbers of gentlemen sojourners from Philadelphia at his farm mansion in Bucks county, and from the fact that the nearest barber shop was nine miles distant he naturally had to be provided with sharp shaving implements for their accommodation, and with a good lot of them, too, the guests being, like the judge, capable of shaving themselves.—Allentown Democrat.

How Did the Turtle Find His Way?

The rocks at the west coast of the island of St. Helena abound with sea turtles, some of them as heavy as a man, and an English steamer once took aboard several dozen of those sea monsters, intending to deliver them alive to a provision dealer in Liverpool. But before they reached English waters one of the turtles was taken sick and was flung overboard, after having been branded with the name of the ship.

Next year the same steamer came across the same tortoise on the coast of St. Helena, more than 4,000 miles from the point where the homesick creature had been flung back overboard.—Chicago Inter Ocean.
